PRESS RELEASE

G4B: TOE TAPPIN' FUN

Classical music can be a passport for anyone at any time to anywhere in the world...the rich, varied history of classical music is reflected in the multi-continental flavors of modern world music, which the Go for Baroque ensemble brings to vivid life.

Featuring works by composers J.S. Bach, LeClaire, and Philidor, as well as Ravel, Piazzolla, Gonzalez-Medina and Jay Ungar, this eclectic mix of German, English, Latino and American pieces are the ticket to a dynamic globetrotting musical extravaganza that will leave audiences young and old hungering for more.

G4B entertains, enlightens and engages the audience by sharing informal anecdotes about the music being performed and the musicians performing it. The quartet features members of the Oklahoma City Philharmonic including violinist Densi Rushing, cellist Jim Shelley, and harpsichordist Peggy Payne. Steve Goforth, principal trumpet of the Bartlesville Symphony also performs with the group.

These instruments are usually thought of in a serious vein, but the ensemble has a good time with their audiences, from a Royalty Suite by Philidor to a Tango by Piazzolla. G4B is comprised of outstanding musicians who simply love making music....any kind and anywhere!

Go for Baroque is listed on the Touring Program of the Oklahoma Arts Council and the regional Mid-America Arts Alliance Touring Artist Roster. (Performance date, location, tickets, etc.) For more information, visit goforbaroque.org or call 405-840-0278.
